

Test 3. Interpretation of Statistical Reports

Based on the publication People on the move – Statistical portrait:

EXERCISE 1

In 2018 in the EU, which country had the biggest share of citizens of another EU Member State?

- 1) Luxemburg
- 2) Estonia
- 3) Cyprus
- 4) Ireland

EXERCISE 2

According to 2017 figures, the most popular destinations for Erasmus master graduates were...

- 1) France & Spain
- 2) France & Germany
- 3) France & Italy
- 4) Germany & Spain

EXERCISE 3

When it comes to people living in one country and working in another, in 2018...

- 1) Construction is the more common field of workers who crosses borders to work
- 2) 48000 workers live in Belgium and work in France
- 3) Surprisingly, there are many situation of people working in non-adjacent countries
- 4) The total share of cross border workers is highly significant when compared to the total amount of employed people in the EU

EXERCISE 4

According to air passengers figures in 2017,

- 1) Largest raises of air passengers between 2008 and 2017 were observed in Slovakia
- 2) Air passengers number between 2008 and 2017 grew in all EU countries
- 3) More than the half of passengers in 2017 flew to a different country, but within EU borders
- 4) Between 2008 and 2017, there is an overall growing tendency in the EU-28

EXERCISE 5

Concerning the number of trips in EU,

- 1) Trips have decreased by a 7% from 2014 to 2017
- 2) Trips have increased by a 7% from 2014 to 2017
- 3) In 2017 number of trips was 1 billion bigger than in 2014
- 4) In 2017, citizens of EU made 1 billion of private trips

SAMPLE